A Bridge Too Far

a dream comes true

In Gansu province of North West China, Po River sharply separates a poor village, Maosi.
A wood-plank bridge is the only means of connection for children to go to school.

During the flooding season, schools have to be suspended...

Therefore,
a group of Hong Kong academics have designed a Safe & Sustainable Footbridge to help the children there, which brings out this charitable project -
